CLEANUP TUB

Cleanup Tub Contents

This tub is intended for both campouts and trash cleanup conservation projects. Soap and sanitizer pump bottles tend to make a mess during transit unless something prevents the neck from being pushed all the way down. A clothespin on the neck is effective.

Trash Cleanup

- Roll of opaque trash bags in plastic tray
 - Roll of clear recycling bags in plastic tray
 - Sharps bags/container
 - Box of adult-size nitrile gloves
 - Box of child-size nitrile gloves
 - Trash bag scale

Hand Cleanup

- Hand soap, neck secured with a clothespin
 - Foam soap, top rotated to 'closed'
 - Hand sanitizer, neck secured with a clothespin
 - Plastic tray for the soap and sanitizer
 - Baby wipes

Cleanup Organizer and Quartermaster Resources

- Scouts Trash the Trash Day scavenger hunt
- Scouting for Clean Waterways instructions
- Cleanup organization instructions
- This kanban card
- Two dry-erase markers

DISH TUB

Dish Tub Contents

The dish tub contents have a tendency to get soapy, bleachy, and wet. The trays and ziplock bags are intended to try to limit spills, sticky transfer, and runs down bottles.

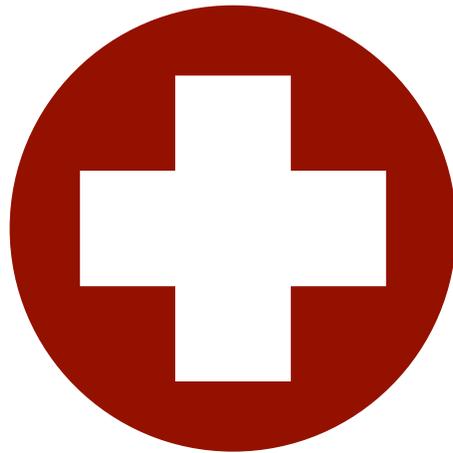

The Dish Line Supplies

- Three collapsible dish tubs with a drain
 - Laminated dish tub descriptions
 - Dish drying towel
 - Sponge and chainmail scrubber in plastic tray, inside a bag to keep them together
 - Plastic bag with extra sponges
 - Plastic tray with small bottle of biodegradable dish soap inside a ziplock bag and a small chemical-safe labeled squirt bottle of bleach inside a ziplock bag

Laminated Dish Leader and Quartermaster resources:

- Dish Leader Role Description
- This kanban card
- Two dry-erase pens in a ziplock bag

FIRST AID TUB

First Aid Tub Contents

Most of the first aid supplies are in the large first aid kit, which is refillable from the manufacturer. See inset card inside the bottom section of the kit.

First Aid Kit

- First aid kit (ANSI ISECA X 308.i-2015 CLASS A)

Supplemental First Aid

- Non-stick sterile pads
- Burn gel
- Elmer's glue (for removing cactus glochids)
- Menstrual pads (in case someone gets their period unexpectedly)

Laminated Quartermaster resources:

- This kanban card
- One dry-erase pen

LEAVE
NO TRACE

Leave No Trace Tub Contents

Included among the pack's LNT things but usually not in this tub is the wandering den Responsible Camper Award, which is a stuffed yeti. The den that followed LNT the best on each campout gets possession of it, to be returned at the next campout.

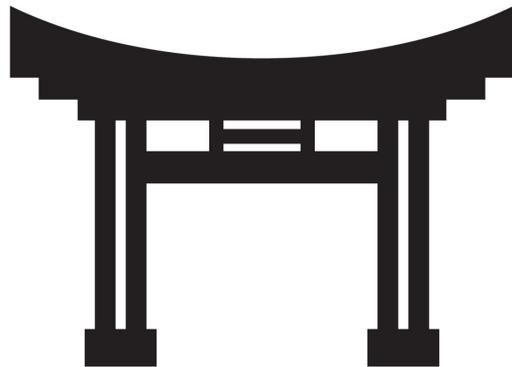

Leave No Trace Training Materials

- Leave No Trace Seven Principles/Leave No Trace for Kids reference cards
- Leave No Trace Skills and Ethics book
- Bigfoot's Playbook: A Youth Educator's Guide to Leave No Trace Activities, Games, and Experiential Curriculum
- Responsible Camper Award
- Outdoor Code Opening cards
- Outdoor Code Closing cards
- Complete set of LNT quick reference cards (LNT summary, Backcountry, Kids, Outdoor Ethics, Heritage Sites, Caving Ethics, Mountain Biking, Winter Recreation, Geocaching, International Outdoor Ethics, Hunting, River Corridors, Fishing, Canyoneering, Bouldering, Rock Climbing, Stock Use, Birding Ethics)
- Leave no Trace for Kids cards with clips to give out to cubs who don't have one yet (may also be in the Hiking Club supplies)
- Laminated Trash Timeline game (key, set of time interval cards, item cards)
- Okay vs No Way cards (12 cards)
- San Antonio River Proud Litter Pledge Card
- Apple Snail Overview

Laminated Quartermaster resources:

- This kanban card
- One dry-erase pen

CAMPFIRE MC POUCH

Campfire MC Pouch Contents

Suggestion: Use the laminated campfire planning aid to organize the offerings, then prepare a stack of index cards with one program element per card for the ceremony itself. (It will be dark and hard to read small text.)

Before the fire is lit or before properly starting the ceremony, start with the fire safety rules before the ceremony starts (they need reminders and expectations set.)

BEGINNING

Start the ceremony with something abrupt and clear - a yell, a conch, a horn, or something like that. It should be very clear that the ceremonial part just began.

MIDDLE

Then, the the ceremony “follow the flames” - energetic and lively yells, songs, and skits when the flames are high; calmer, softer, and more contemplative contributions as the flames start dying down. (Do not add more wood to create a strong campfire ceremony container.) Cub Scouts are very energetic, so make sure to choose several songs and yells with movements to go with them.

END

The signal that the campfire is over is Vespers - after Vespers, it's time to go to bed or do other calm, quiet activities. We usually only sing the first verse.
